TRAVEL WEEKLY

ADVERTISE IN TRAVEL WEEKLY'S FEATURES PAGES

Travel Weekly publishes more destination content than all other UK travel trade titles combined, and all of our features are available in print and online and promoted across social media. Here is a selection of opportunities we offer to boost your marketing message and reach our extensive travel agent readership.

DISPLAY ADVERTISING

Advertise against relevant editorial content in Travel Weekly's market-leading features to communicate your message to agents who are most likely to act on it.

FEATURES TAKEOVER

For maximum impact and value, a features takeover package gives you the ultimate brand exposure in a relevant Travel Weekly feature, at a more competitive rate than booking elements separately.

CUSTOM SUPPLEMENTS

Travel Weekly can create a bespoke selling guide about your destination or product for the UK trade. The supplement will be distributed to our unrivalled agent readership in print and hosted online as a digital magazine. Our experienced team of writers and designers will work closely with you to ensure the finished product achieves all of your objectives.

ADVERTORIALS AND INSERTS

If you would like to communicate marketing messages through custom-published content, the Travel Weekly team can work with you to create sponsored inserts or advertorials tailored to a trade audience. The pages will be written and designed by our experienced team, then sent to you for amendments and approval. They will also be hosted online on the Travel Weekly Hub and shared on social media. If you want to reach a digital audience, we also offer online-only advertorials on the Travel Weekly Hub produced by our team.
